The Japs Play Havoc With China's Navy.

Unconfirmed Report That Vessels Were Sunk Off Wei-Hai-Wei.

A Japanese Officer Makes a Comparison of the Strength of the Two Countries—News by Steamer.

LONDON, Aug. 15.—(By Atlantic Cable.) Private dispatches from Yokohama say that seven Chinese vessels were sunk in a recent engagement with Japanese. This report lacks confirmation and probably arose from the statement received of a battle on August 11 between Chinese and Japanese fleets, and the Chinese were driven off. Inquiries at the Chinese legation here fall to obtain confirmation of the report.

STRICT NEUTRALITY. LONDON, Aug. 15.—A dispatch to the Times from Tien-Tsin says that the British Minister has issued a notice enforcing strict neutrality upon British subjects in the far East, during the war between Japan and China. The French gunboat Lion has arrived at Tien-Tsin. It is announced that warships flying any flag which attempt to cross Taku Bay will be fired upon unless their intended arrival has previously been notified to officers in command of the fort there.

The French gunboat Lion will be remembered as the warship which is reported to have been present at the sinking of the transport Kow-shung, and important evidence is expected from her commander.

SIAM'S KING DEAD. VICTORIA (B. C.), Aug. 15.—Dispatches from steamship Canada announce the death of the King of Siam. H. M. S. Rattler has been dispatched to Bangkok in the event of trouble over the succession.

FROM ANOTHER SOURCE. LONDON, Aug. 15.—A Yokohama special to the Chronicle says a steamer has reached there of Japanese origin, engaged in the transport of Japanese naval vessels. The steamer is reported to have been present at the sinking of the transport Kow-shung, and important evidence is expected from her commander.

STEAMER ADVICES. A Japanese Officer Compares China's Strength With Japan's.

VICTORIA (B. C.), Aug. 15.—The steamer Tacoma from Hong Kong arrived at this port shortly after noon today. Her weather log is brief. She left Hong Kong on July 19, Shanghai on July 29, and Kobe on July 30. So far as can be gathered from the log, the steamer has been in the Pacific since she left Kobe. Numbers of leading merchants have made contributions of rice and salt, and all is hurry, bustle and fighting talk. Lieut. Gen. Takahama expressed himself as follows at Osaka: "The military equipment of the country has become perfect by degrees since the organization of divisions in 1885. At present the Japanese army need not fear any country in the world, with the exception of three or four powers. In comparing her navy with that of China, Japan is inferior in point of tonnage by some three thousand tons, but China has vessels with a speed of only twelve knots, while Japan has vessels of eighteen knots. As to skill and arms, China is no match for Japan, moreover she has only thirty vessels of the China Merchants' Steam Navigation Company as transports, while Japan has a fleet of over two thousand tons for that purpose. As it is the first occasion on which foreign squadrons engage in combat, foreign powers will regard with attention the issues of a naval encounter. Thus the present occasion is worthy of our full exertion, and it will be a good opportunity to show the world our military strength."

"Since the naval fight off Fusan, the running of Japanese steamers between Japan and Fusan has been suspended. General travel on the smaller oriental lines is very much broken and news of an authentic nature is difficult to obtain. The report that the Chinese Minister was to start for home on July 23 is denied. He is said to have been ordered to leave upon the withdrawal of the Japanese fleet from the Korean coast. LEVI P. MORTON. He Would Accept a Nomination for Governor.

PARIS, Aug. 15.—(By Atlantic Cable.) A representative of the Associated Press had an interview with ex-Vice-President Levi P. Morton in regard to his political prospects and the movement in New York to tender him a Republican nomination for Governor. Morton, who appears to be in excellent health, reiterated the statement that he made on August 10. He said that he had not written a letter expressing his willingness to accept the nomination, and that he would accept it only if he considered it the better policy for the party to make any statement upon the subject.

Vice-President Howard of the A. R. U. Testifies—South Omaha Strikers Declare Their Boycott Off.

CHICAGO, Aug. 15.—The strike commission, appointed by President Cleveland, to investigate the Pullman and the railroad strikers, began work today. Vice-President Howard of the A. R. U. was the first witness. He expressed the hope that the commission would use every effort to get to the bottom of the matter and ensure that the investigation should be thorough.

"Now," said the Commissioner, "tell us what, in your opinion, caused the railroad strike?" "The strikes were caused," answered Howard, "by the statement of the General Managers that they would back up Pullman during the strike."

Howard then entered into an exhaustive recital of the troubles leading up to the original Pullman strike. The men had announced their intention to strike, he said, but, on being assured by the company's officials that the employees' grievances would be investigated, he urged the men to go back to work. This they did on the promise of the company that the commission would be held in check.

"We ordered no strike," he said; "we simply desired that the Pullman cars should be left off the rails. As this policy was not followed, the men struck. We were then met by the General Managers' Association. They refused to haul the mail cars until the Pullman cars were attached to the trains. Such action was entirely unauthorized for the Pullman cars are no way necessary for the transmission of United States mails."

"Was the action of your union in the world, with the exception of three or four powers. LEVI P. MORTON. He Would Accept a Nomination for Governor.

PARIS, Aug. 15.—(By Atlantic Cable.) A representative of the Associated Press had an interview with ex-Vice-President Levi P. Morton in regard to his political prospects and the movement in New York to tender him a Republican nomination for Governor. Morton, who appears to be in excellent health, reiterated the statement that he made on August 10. He said that he had not written a letter expressing his willingness to accept the nomination, and that he would accept it only if he considered it the better policy for the party to make any statement upon the subject.

THE DENVER MEET.

Leading Cyclists Gathering for Sport.

Championships and Solid Considerations are Also Sought After.

A Trotter Killed by Lightning—A Two Hundred Mile Race—Ziegler's Fast—The For-eign Yachts.

NEAR BEREA, twelve miles from here, early this morning, Jacob Greiss was walking along the Lake Shore tracks, several yards ahead of Charles, when his brother's body struck him and threw him to the ground. A second later a passenger train came and when Jacob picked himself up he saw the bleeding and mangled remains of his brother, who had been struck by the train, at his feet. The survivor has been furnished means to send the body to Chicago.

THE INVESTIGATION. WORK OF THE STRIKE COMMISSIONERS BEGUN.

Vice-President Howard of the A. R. U. Testifies—South Omaha Strikers Declare Their Boycott Off.

CHICAGO, Aug. 15.—The strike commission, appointed by President Cleveland, to investigate the Pullman and the railroad strikers, began work today. Vice-President Howard of the A. R. U. was the first witness. He expressed the hope that the commission would use every effort to get to the bottom of the matter and ensure that the investigation should be thorough.

"Now," said the Commissioner, "tell us what, in your opinion, caused the railroad strike?" "The strikes were caused," answered Howard, "by the statement of the General Managers that they would back up Pullman during the strike."

Howard then entered into an exhaustive recital of the troubles leading up to the original Pullman strike. The men had announced their intention to strike, he said, but, on being assured by the company's officials that the employees' grievances would be investigated, he urged the men to go back to work. This they did on the promise of the company that the commission would be held in check.

"We ordered no strike," he said; "we simply desired that the Pullman cars should be left off the rails. As this policy was not followed, the men struck. We were then met by the General Managers' Association. They refused to haul the mail cars until the Pullman cars were attached to the trains. Such action was entirely unauthorized for the Pullman cars are no way necessary for the transmission of United States mails."

"Was the action of your union in the world, with the exception of three or four powers. In comparing her navy with that of China, Japan is inferior in point of tonnage by some three thousand tons, but China has vessels with a speed of only twelve knots, while Japan has vessels of eighteen knots. As to skill and arms, China is no match for Japan, moreover she has only thirty vessels of the China Merchants' Steam Navigation Company as transports, while Japan has a fleet of over two thousand tons for that purpose. As it is the first occasion on which foreign squadrons engage in combat, foreign powers will regard with attention the issues of a naval encounter. Thus the present occasion is worthy of our full exertion, and it will be a good opportunity to show the world our military strength."

"Since the naval fight off Fusan, the running of Japanese steamers between Japan and Fusan has been suspended. General travel on the smaller oriental lines is very much broken and news of an authentic nature is difficult to obtain. ## A QUEER CASE.

SURGICAL EXPERIMENTS ON A WEAK-MINDED BOY.

Taken from His Home Against the Wishes of His Guardian by the Operator—Talking of Arrests.

There are some peculiar circumstances connected with a very delicate surgical operation performed upon young Albert Peters in this city last Sunday morning, which would seem to indicate that cranks of a certain kind are dangerous people to have at large in a community. It would also seem as though there must be some process of law whereby the natural guardian of a boy who is not in full possession of his faculties can prevent a stranger coming to his house and performing the operation, although expressly forbidden, for the purpose of performing an operation upon his body.

The friends of William Peters, who works at the Westlake grocery on Alvarado street, and who is the elder brother and proper guardian of the boy in question, have been trying to impress this aspect of the affair upon his mind for three days, and want him to prosecute the offender for his criminal conduct. But young Peters doesn't court notoriety, and doesn't want to prosecute, and he is assured that he has an excellent case.

"All I want," he said yesterday to a Times reporter, "is to have the fellow exposed so that he won't be trying his crazy theories on any more children, and perhaps injuring them a good deal more seriously than he did my brother."

"Two weeks ago the man, whose name is Lewis H. Rogers, came to me and asked if I wouldn't let him perform a certain operation upon my brother. He has a peculiar theory regarding the cure of all diseases, and said that he was sure it would give my brother full possession of all his faculties; but I thought that he was a crank, and knew that he was not a properly-qualified physician. He told me, emphatically, that I wouldn't give him permission to treat Albert."

"Last Sunday evening, when I got back from Santa Monica, I found that Rogers had come to our house, at No. 521 Bonnie Brae street, about 11 o'clock in the morning, when our housekeeper, Mrs. Van Voorhees, was away at church, and had taken Albert away in a buggy. He took him to Rogers' drug store, and there he and a man named Palmer, and the drugist, performed the operation."

"I don't know who Palmer is, but I'm sure that he is not a licensed physician. I went down to the Health Officer's yesterday to look him up. Anyway, even if he was a doctor it wouldn't give him any right to operate in that way on my brother without permission."

"Of course I was very angry with Rogers, who is primarily to blame, especially after I had forbidden him to touch Albert. When I asked why he had taken Albert away without my permission, he said he informed me of the operation, so because he knew that I would say no to the proposal. All my friends tell me that I ought to have given Rogers a good thrashing, and I'm inclined to believe that I wouldn't have done so if I had been there at the time, but he is an old man, although a crank, and I don't want to get into any trouble. He said that he exposed, though, so that he won't try his quackery on any one else. Why, only yesterday he tried to persuade somebody in the store here to have their little daughter treated according to his theory."

Young Peters also said that he had seen Chief of Police Glass on Tuesday and that he had advised swearing out a complaint against Rogers.

On Monday morning Rogers again called at the house in William Peters's absence and took the boy to the County Hospital, where Dr. Hagen examined him. Rogers, who said that he was not in a dangerous condition and there was no use in his staying there. Accordingly he went back home again on Tuesday. The boy is now at his home and is confined to the house, as Rogers told them that there was danger if he moved about much. Dr. Hagen said that Rogers' theory was not acceptable to the medical profession at all and that it was regarded as quackery.

The Peters have been living at No. 521 Bonnie Brae street, since their mother died. Their father is also dead, so that the boys are poor orphans, but the elder has a good position and the younger has been selling papers for nearly a year. They have a housekeeper, as mentioned above, to take care of the house and them and are in comfortable circumstances.

MISS FLOYD'S TRIP.

The Queer Journey of an East Side Girl.

An East Side correspondent sends The Times the following:

"The Floyd family, residing at the corner of Griffin and Downey avenues, are highly incensed over an article concerning Miss Alma, their nineteen-year-old daughter, which appeared in an evening paper yesterday. The article was something over a column in length and purported to be a description of the flight of Miss Floyd to the mountains of Montana to avoid a tidal wave prophesied for this week. The whole story is pronounced by the family to be a gross exaggeration, the only particle of truth being the statement, which is a fact, that Miss Floyd arrived on the Southern Pacific overland from the East yesterday morning. That she had gone to avoid the tidal wave or anything of the kind was denied by her father, herself and mother, the latter stating that her daughter had gone with their full knowledge and consent to visit friends, and had been taken to the mountains to return from Ogden. Mrs. Floyd said: 'I think it is bad enough that she should be ill and have the disappointment of a spoiled trip, without the additional insult of a newspaper write-up of her having run away or being frightened away by any earthquake or tidal wave, there is not a word of truth in the story as published.'"

There appears to be a discrepancy somewhere in regard to the matter. Yesterday F. L. Floyd, the father of the young lady, called at The Times office and gave the facts of his daughter's trip. He said that the girl had taken up the idea that there was danger from a great tidal wave and wanted to leave for Montana, and tried to get her parents to accompany her. They tried to reason with her, but she would not be convinced, and finally started out alone, purchasing her ticket with her own money. She left a note saying that the reason she did not ask her parents' consent was because she knew they would not give it. On the train she thought the matter over and concluded to return to Los Angeles, thinking it was her duty to remain with her parents. She accordingly turned back from Ogden, and arrived at home yesterday morning. Mr. Floyd said that this was all there was in the whole story, and when she realized fully what she was doing she repented and returned home."

ALL ABOUT A DOG.

Don't Like the Fifty-cent Rate for Canines.

Mariano Nocerino, an Italian gentleman, who at the Times office last evening complained of the treatment which he, as a friend, George Bahagietti, had received at the hands of a conductor on a University electric car yesterday afternoon, the gentleman boarded the car at the corner of Fourth and Spring streets, one of them carrying a little dog in his arms. The conductor collected the usual fare from them, and after the car had proceeded a couple of blocks came around and demanded 50 cents for the dog.

They objected to the demand on the ground that the company should have a notice, stating that 50 cents extra would be charged for dogs, posted in the cars and that the conductor should at least have told them of that fact when he collected their fare. The conductor then stopped the car and Mr. Bahagietti got off with the dog. He asked that the 50 cents fare be returned to him, but the conductor refused. Mr. Nocerino says that it isn't the money, but the principle that he cares about, and thinks the company should post notices of rules in regard to the fares charged, in all their cars. They have complained to the street car officials against the conductor.

GUM-CHEWERS.

Women to Act as Drummers for a Chicago Firm.

Associated Press Leadwire Service. CHICAGO, Aug. 15.—During the next few days well-dressed, business-like women will visit the confectioneries, groceries, drug stores and numerous other kinds of retail mercantile establishments and offer for sale a certain kind of gum. They will sell it, too.

A wholesaler, said to a reporter: "We have decided to send women through the city introducing our gum. We think they can do better than men in this line and certainly we will give them a chance."

"Will they peddle?" "No, unless they want to, and then we will give them the goods as fast as they furnish the security. We think it best, however, to send them out as commercial saleswomen, traveling within a limited circle. They will be given samples and will take orders the same as any 'drummer.'"

The chewing-gum industry has grown enormously within the last few years and the habit of chewing the stuff has spread from school girls to all degrees and conditions of men and women. Fortunes have been made in it and many more will be made. The competition is sharp and innovations in the trade are numerous. This is the latest. The idea is not original with us. A manufacturer in Indiana for several months has had a bright young woman on the road selling his product and during the coldest months of last winter, when stagnation ruled, the trade of her orders for chewing-gum were enormous. We think other women can do what she did and so we are hiring some. A man can make from $10 to $30 a week. A woman should do better."

"And are you willing to trust them with the samples?" "You mean they will chew them up? We have thought of that and will throw all the necessary safeguards around our wares."

A BOLD IDEA.

A Colored Army Chaplain on Exploration of Africa.

Associated Press Leadwire Service.

OMAHA, Aug. 15.—Chaplain Henry V. Plummer, of the Ninth Cavalry (colored), U.S.A., is agitating a scheme to explore certain portions of the dark continent. He petitioned the Secretary of War to furnish him a company of picked colored soldiers and transport them to Africa. "I have read much on Africa, and the explorations that have been made, and I well versed on subjects relating to the continent. He believes that Africa is a country of wonderful resources and extensive mineral wealth."

Must Be Settlers.

GUTHRIE (Okla.) Aug. 15.—In the contested lot case of 'horn vs. Newcomb, the commissioner of the General Land Office has decided that a settler must actually live upon lots or conduct active business thereon in order to acquire title and cannot live elsewhere and hold government lots through an agent or by purchase of another settler's rights. This decision will give many thousands of settlers' worth of valuable property to actual settlers instead of speculators.

Fighting Farmers.

COLUMBUS (Ind.) Aug. 15.—A hard fight, in which Farmers Joseph Vickery, William Williams, Archie Williams and Adam May, all well-to-do and highly respected men, were engaged, took place in Hope, in the eastern part of this county, last night. These men could not agree on a business transaction and went into court. The court took their case under advisement and a bloody fight followed. All were arrested.

Encampment Rates.

CHICAGO, Aug. 15.—The lines of the Central Traffic Association today decided that they will not, under any circumstances, accept from the Texas lines, nor others, any tickets of the G.A.R. encampment at Pittsburg or the meeting of the Knights of Pythias at Washington, which are sold at less than the agreed trip.

Fire in a Grocery.

NEW YORK, Aug. 15.—Five alarms were turned in in the fire in the wholesale grocery establishment of R. J. Williams & Co., at Hudson and Thomas streets. The fire originated, it is thought, from spontaneous combustion. It was confined to one building. "The loss places its loss on stock at $200,000, mostly by water. The building is worth $200,000."

UNION BANK OF SAVINGS.

An important addition to the financial facilities of Los Angeles was made when, in January of 1893, the Union Bank of Savings began operations. The bank, in the year it has been in business, has had most satisfactory results, and has numerous depositors, offering liberal interest to all who desire to open up a savings account. It has a capital stock of $200,000, held by prominent capitalists and business men. The directors are as follows: Messrs. M. W. Stimson, formerly of Boston, Mass., and a well-known capitalist; William Ferguson, of the City Water Company; R. M. Baker, capitalist; S. A. Butler, agent Wells-Fargo Express; S. H. Mott, secretary of the City Water Company; A. E. Pomeroy, broker and capitalist; and C. G. Harrison, president of Los Angeles Abstract Company. The above are among the most influential capitalists and business men, and their names would be a tower of strength to any institution. Mr. M. W. Stimson, the president, being of the highest range of financial experience. He is noted for sound judgment and marked executive ability, and is especially qualified to discharge the responsible duties of his post. Mr. William Ferguson is vice-president, and W. E. McVay is cashier, and both gentlemen are recognized as able financiers. The bank has already achieved a great success. Interest is paid at a most liberal rate, and depositors have the security of an honorable and able management. The restrictions are only such as are compatible with a well-regulated bank, and no concern is more worthy of success than the Union Bank of Savings.

A GIRL'S SHAME.

Queer Story Told to the Deputy District Attorney.

Yesterday afternoon a young girl giving her name as Ella Bowen, formerly a member of the Salvation Army in this city, went to Deputy District Attorney Rush's office and told a sad story of ill-treatment. It seems, according to her story, that for the past few days a man named Walter Thomas has kept her confined in a room in the Victory Block in this city, and subjected her to cruelty and shame.

She says that she was an honest woman, a member of the Salvation Army, and employed as a house servant up to ten days ago, when Thomas enticed her away with his promises of a position. He told her that he wanted some one to do housework for himself and his father and mother in their rooms in the Victory Block. The girl says that she accepted this proposal and was thus decoyed into one of the rooms in the Victory Block, where she was told that she was to be the wife of the Thomas, where her trouble occurred.

Then, she says, that before she had been in the room assigned her for twenty-four hours she was told by Mrs. Thomas that she must "hustle" for herself. She says that she did not understand what was meant, but had the full meaning of the word explained to her shortly afterwards when young Thomas entered her room and there accomplished his ruin, giving her to understand that she was expected to become a prostitute, a living for herself by prostitution. He also told her, it is alleged, that she must hold immoral intercourse with negroes or Chinamen or any one who came around. She alleges further that, in order to show that he had the upper hand of her and to break her spirit effectually he went out on the streets himself and invited Chinamen and negroes to her room on several occasions, and took from her every cent of the money received as the price of her shame.

After putting up with this for about ten days the girl says she escaped from her room yesterday and fled to the Police Station where she told her story to the proper authorities. A complaint was then sworn against Thomas, charging him with vagrancy, and Constable Richardson arrested him at her home or so later.

It is also stated that the Thomas have another girl in their toils whom they are subjecting to similar treatment. The case will be thoroughly investigated and the full penalty of the law will be meted out to the offenders if the girl's sad story is found to be true.

Old Mr. and Mrs. Thomas gave a very different version of the affair to a Times reporter last evening which, if true, will materially change the aspect of the relations between the parties concerned. They say that the girl came to board with them about ten days ago of her own volition and that she came and went from her room as she pleased. They say that the girl claimed that she was working at a cannery and that she was working at a cannery and that she was working at a cannery.

Thomas asserts very positively that the girl was a common prostitute before ever she came to their rooms.

Mrs. Thomas told the woman she must leave her house. She owed her money so she kept her trunk. That made her angry and this story of hers is just a piece of spite.

Thomas was arraigned before Justice Austin yesterday and held on $100 bonds for trial today.

MORE HIGH HONORS

For Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder.

Another signal triumph has been achieved by Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder. At the California Midwinter Fair of 1894, as at the World's Columbian Exposition of 1893, it surpassed all competitors. An expert jury, after careful analysis and exhaustive comparison, awarded it highest honors and a special gold medal. The award was for highest leavening power, perfect purity and general excellence. It was sustained by the unanimous vote of the judges. Coupled with the victory at Chicago, the achievement at San Francisco confirms and emphasizes Dr. Price's as "The foremost baking powder in the world." It now stands supreme.

Steadily Growing.

The subscription fund for the relief of the family of Detective A. O. Benson is steadily growing, and yesterday reached a total of something like $700. Test No. 2 of the Macintosh, the order which Mr. Benson was on the point of joining when he took sick, raised $12 last night in a little while, and a committee was appointed to circulate the subscription list among a number of members who were not present at the meeting.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report.

IN SOCIAL SPHERES.

On Saturday evening, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Marsales were surprised at their residence on Freeman street, by the unexpected appearance of a number of their friends who were gathered in by a variety of "unintentional" sounds, the occasion being the tenth anniversary of the marriage of the host and hostess. The visitors were delightfully entertained with music, readings and games until near midnight, when refreshments were served. The guests departed after wishing their hosts many happy returns of the day. Among those present were Messrs. Furbeck, Plumsted, Hodge, Fuller, Le Couer, Messrs Earl and Plumsted, and Messrs. Fuller, Hodge, Plumsted, Furbeck and others.

KILLIAM-CAMPBELL.

Capt. D. O. Killiam of the barkentine Catherine Sidden was married to Miss Minnie Campbell of Eureka, Cal., at the residence of F. K. Parke of the Santa Fe, at No. 2916 South Main street. The ceremony was performed by Dr. J. W. Campbell, of the Broadway Methodist Episcopal Church. Among those present were Capt. F. A. Perry, J. B. Mullen, S. B. Hall, Mr. and Mrs. F. K. Parke. Both returned to Redondo last evening and will go from there to Portland, Or., which will be their future home.

PARISH-WILLIAMS.

The wedding of Miss Julia Williams, proprietor of the Margaret millinery store, to Joseph D. Parish, the well-known contractor of this city, took place Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the home of the bride on Broadway, the Rev. Dr. Campbell officiating. A large number of friends and relatives were present, and the gifts received were numerous and handsome. Mr. and Mrs. Parish left on the steamer for the North and will be absent some weeks.

NOTES AND PERSONALS.

Quite a number of Angelinos made the ascent of Wilson's Peak yesterday and will remain there a few days. Among them were Mrs. Rhodes, Mrs. E. D. Mayrick, and Messrs. Marks, Reed and Lehman. #### A Treat for the Orphans.

The children of the Protestant Orphan Asylum, attended Col. Boone's exhibition of trained animals, upon the invitation of that gentleman, yesterday afternoon. The little ones enjoyed the show most heartily and went away filled with wonder at the strange performances of the lions, bears, pigs and all the rest of them. The genial colonel may feel repaid for his courtesy when he realizes that he has given sixty or so little souls something to think of and talk of for days. The children of the Catholic Asylum were also invited, but did not appear.
